Dear Loren Billings,

Thanks so much for your help in searching for the present collections of some of Bruce Nauman's holograms. We know which are in the collections of Leo Castelli Gallery Gallery . NY, Sperone Westwater, New York and Rome; the Guggenheim Museum/Panza Collection and also those of the artist, but we don't have credits for many of the other plates, which were often shown separately and sold separately.

The holograms are:

First Hologram Series: Making Faces (A-K), 1968. Eleven plates

Second Hologram Series: Full Figure Poses (A-J). Ten plates.

If your turn up any leads, please let me know soonest, as we are under deadline to complete the book. The Nauman show opens at the Walker Art Center, Minneapolis in April, before traveling to Museum of Contemporary Art, Los Angeles; Hirshhorn Museum, Washington, and The Museum of Modern Art, New York.

With many thanks and all good wishes,

Jean Simon
